*Response Hymn Let Us Break Bread Together

LET US BREAK BREAD

Let us break bread together on our knees (on our knees)
Let us break bread together on our knees (on our knees)

Let us drink wine together on our knees (on our knees)
Let us drink wine together on our knees (on our knees)

Let us praise God together on our knees (on our knees)
Let us praise God together on our knees (on our knees)

Refrain:

When I fall on my knee, with my face to the rising sun,
O Lord, have mercy on me. (on me)

Celebration of the Lord's Supper

Invitation to the Table

Prayer of Great Thanksgiving and the Lord's Prayer

...Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

*Sending Hymn All the Colors of the Rainbow (tune of Come, Thou Fount)

NETTLETON, TEXT: CARL P DAW, 2016

All the colors of the rainbow live unseen in daily light, but their splendors find expression when released to human sight;
so the church reveals most beauty where diversity is real:
breadth of race and class and gender, room for doubt, and space to heal.

All the body's parts are wanted, nor can one despise the rest:
head and hand must work together, as must eye, ear, throat, and chest;
so the church needs all its members or a range of ministries:
varied gifts with one great mission, "Do this for the least of these."

Every language gains more music when the words for peace appear:
Pax, Salaam, Eiríni, Heiwa, Pace, Santi, Frieden, Mir.

Though our tongues make sounds that vary all bespeak a common home:
longing for the end of conflict and new life in God's Shalom.

Teach us, God, our need of others; through them help us fully live.
Wean us from our selfish habits; let us listen, learn, forgive.
May we see your longed-for image in each human heart and face, and behold how those around us can be channels of your grace.

When our worship is over, our service begins
